

Mark Lowry returns for 32nd annual festival

Back by popular demand, Mark Lowry will be our guest for a return engagement at this year's festival! Mark is known and loved around the world as an innately entertaining communicator who, at once, makes audiences laugh, cry and think.

Mark is a singer, storyteller, humorist and songwriter, whose lyric to "Mary Did You Know?" resulted in one of the most loved modern Christmas songs of this century. This captivating song, which he co-wrote with Buddy Greene, has been recorded by artists from every genre.

Mark has spent more than 20 collective years as the baritone singer for the Grammy-award winning Gaither Vocal Band and serves as the sidesplitting comedic sidekick for Bill Gaither through concert tours and Gaither Homecoming video series and television airings.

Enjoy Mark at the Old Glory Stage @ 12:30 pm

2018 Grammy winner Rhonda Vincent to appear

Rhonda Vincent and her group "Rhonda Vincent and The Rage", won a Grammy award earlier this year for the Best Bluegrass Album of the Year for "All the Rage – In Concert Volume One (Live)".

Rhonda and her band will perform at 3:30 on the Old Glory Stage, and promises to put on a great show for those attending!
